IN MEMORIAM

Died, on February 14, at his home near Key West, in Kenton county, Mr. Henry T. Clemens, age about sixty years, and a brother of Mrs. J. P. Osborne, of this city; a member of the Baptist church, a true and devoted Christian. Five sons and two daughters and a host of loving friends are left to mourn the loss of a highly respected citizen.

We miss thee from our home, papa dear.

We miss thee from thy place;

A shadow o'er our life is cast

We miss the sunshine of thy face.

Sweet and peaceful be thy rest

Forget you we can never;

God called you, He alone knows best.

His will be done forever.

WARRANT FOR
J. B. VANHOOK

Is Sworn Out by Mr. John Oaks, Charging Bigamy.—Accused Was Formerly Teacher at Trapp.

Determined to stop all communication between his daughter, Mrs. Mary Vanhook, and her alleged bigamous husband, J. B. Vanhook, Mr. John Oaks, of Ford, this county, issued a warrant for Vanhook, who is thought to be at Indianapolis.

Chief McCord sent the warrant to the Chief of Police at Indianapolis but he has received no word in regard to it and he fears that Vanhook has left the city. The chief telegraphed to Indianapolis late Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Vanhook is now critically ill at Lexington and her death has been feared. Mrs. Oaks went to Lexington and found that Vanhook had been writing endearing letters to her daughter and determined to have the man arrested.

Oaks states in the warrant that Vanhook has another living wife and three children in Pulaski county, who are said to be in destitute circumstances owing to Vanhook's desertion.

Vanhook first came to this county as a book agent. While plying his trade at Ford he met pretty Mary Oaks, whom he by his smooth tongue and neat appearance induced to marry him. The marriage took place in March, 1907. When the marriage cerse was secured Vanhook requested the clerk to withhold it from publication.

In 1910 Vanhook was selected to teach the school at Trapp. He made an excellent teacher and was popular with the patrons of the school. Vanhook's teaching, however, was his undoing, for a State Inspector looking over the books in County Superintendent Lanter's office saw the man's name and recognized him as the husband of a destitute wife and the father of three children in Pulaski county.

"That man teaching school here and his wife and children starving!" exclaimed the Inspector.

In order to verify his discoveries, the Inspector directed Superintendent Lanter to write to Pulaski. This he did and found that Vanhook was the same man.

Mrs. Vanhook and her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Oaks, were notified that Vanhook had a living wife and suit was brought for divorce, charging Vanhook with bigamy. It is said that Mrs. Vanhook would not have brought the suit, had she not been urged to do so by her parents.

The warrants states that Oaks was first informed of his son-in-law's other wife in April, 1911—a period of four years after the marriage; that Mrs. Oaks questioned Vanhook about his previous wife and that he left soon after and has not since been back to this city.

According to friends of the couple they were very happy together and it is not believed that Mrs. Vanhook desired a separation.

Mr. Oaks would probably not have prosecuted Vanhook, further than to secure a divorce, had not the recent correspondence been discovered.

COMING EVENTS CAST THEIR SHADOWS.

The first presidential boomers to arrive in this city are a number of buttons bearing the picture of Woodrow Wilson and the inscription, "For President, 1912."

Mr. J. Smith Hays is distributing the buttons.

NEGRO MAN CHARGED WITH GRAND LARCENY

Raymond Blye is Accused of Stealing
And Executing a Chicken Which Belonged to Mr. J. C. M. Day.

A warrant was issued Thursday charging Raymond Blye, colored, with grand larceny for the alleged stealing of chicken from Mr. John C. M. Day. The trial was fixed for Friday night in the Police Court.

Blye has been in jail for some time, having been arrested on suspicion. When the negro was arrested he had blood on the southern end of his trousers, which the police think came from a chicken whose head he had pulled off. Blye, however, explained the presence of the blood by saying that his nose had been bleeding.

J. TAYLOR DAY'S STORE
BURNS TO GROUND.

Mt. Sterling, Ky., Feb. 23.—A telegram received here announced the burning of the large general store of J. Taylor Day at Frozen Creek, Breathitt county. The large building and contents of stock of goods were totally destroyed, entailing a loss of $10,000 to $12,000.

Insurance of $5,000 was carried in Hogman's Agency in this city. The Day store was one of the largest in Eastern Kentucky. It is not known how the fire originated.

Mr. Day is a brother of Messrs. Floyd and John Day, of this city, and is well known here; where he has many friends who will regret to hear of his misfortune.

MASQUERADERS ARE THE WHOLE SHOW

Large Crowd is Present For Affair at Auditorium, Which Proves to be a Big Success.

A large crowd was present for the masquerade at the Auditorium skating rink on Thursday night, and the originality of the ideas and skill in the execution of the costumes were the source of much comment.

The first prize was awarded to Miss Carrie McEwan who as a country girl was the very impersonation of the bucolic belle.

Miss Carrie Lee Warner, who carried off the first prize at the former masquerade, was awarded the second prize at Thursday night's affair. She was attired as a witch.

Mr. Chas. Lockman, as a trapper, won the third prize.

In the mile championship race, which was a good one, Mr. Albert Graves came out ahead. This entitled Mr. Graves to entrance for the championship contest to be given on the evening of February 28.

RARE TREAT AT
CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Two of the Most Wonderful Missionaries in The World Will Speak
In This City Sunday.

Sunday will be a notable day at the First Christian church, of this city. In the morning the speaker will be A. E. Corey, President of the University of Nanking, China. He is a great orator.

In the evening, Dr. Royal J. Dye, of Boeigne, Africa, will tell of his wonderful church on the Congo river, in the heart of Africa.

This church, many of whose members were formerly savage cannibals, itself supports seventy missionaries, a record not equaled by any other church in the world. It was founded by Dr. Dye, who is still its pastor.

OUTLINE OF WORK
BEING DONE BY D. A. R.

Alex Skovgaard, Famous Danish
Violin to Give Concert Here Under Auspices of Hart Chapter.

On Wednesday, February 28, Skovgaard, the Danish violinist, with Miss Ethel May Wright, soprano, and Miss Alice McClung, pianist, will give a concert under the auspices of Hart Chapter, at the home of Miss Mary Belle Field Miller.

Skovgaard needs no introduction, as he is no stranger to the musical world having played by request before King Christian, of Denmark; King Oscar, of Sweden; King Haakon, of Norway, and Emperor Wilhelm, of Germany. His violin is a Stradivarius and cost $13,000. The public deems it a rare privilege to hear Skovgaard in Winchester.

It will be a fitting time to bring before the public the noble work of the D. A. R. The outlined work of the National Society includes some tremendous undertakings of national and patriotic import, which will demand for accomplishment both devoted effort and generous contributions of money. The endeavors are of course shared by all the states with equal enthusiasm, and in mentioning them, Kentucky is included.

The first cause to which all chapters are requested to devote their energies is, of course, the completion of Continental Hall, in Washington, where the Daughters will have, at once, an official home beautifully adorned and a reverend memorial to the noble men and women of our country's early days.

Important as is its completion, it in no wise interferes with the more characteristic labors proper to a company of women inspired by love of country.

The splendid reports published from committees devoted to "Preservation of Historic Spots," to "Suppression of Child Labor," to forming of children's patriotic societies bear witness to the fact. In all these movements Kentucky's Daughters have borne their part. Kentucky's laws for the suppression of child labor are among the best in the union. Her contribution to the cause of patriotic education in the mountain districts have been considerable and are annually increasing.

In marking historic spots, the D. A. R. have been untiring. Kentucky being singularly rich in places of heroic interest. Each chapter is devoted to the accomplishment of some special work. One of the youngest, Hart Chapter of Winchester, has not been idle. Each year, has made liberal donations to southern educational work, has given, annually, a medal in our public school to the pupil having the highest average in history, has promised to furnish and maintain a room in our proposed hospital; has given to Associated Charities, and many other causes.

The true spirit and high aim of this society of D. A. R. are just beginning to be understood in our community and the prospects of future growth and earnest worth is all that could be desired.

All the efforts of the Daughters are expended along lines singularly appropriate to the endeavor of women who have it in their power to so foster and encourage in their respective communities that sturdy love of country and her best interests, which alone can create a demand for disinterested legislation, and which alone can supply the fusion fire, which will blend the diverse elements of our civilization into the great farce for international good, which seems the fitting destiny of this Land of the Free.

ROMANTIC
ELOPEMENT

Of Mr. Oliver Kash and Miss Mayme
McLin, of Hazel Green, Reported in This City.

News of the romantic elopement and marriage of Miss Mayme McLin to Mr. Oliver Kash has just reached here.

The bride is a granddaughter of Mr. Taylor Day, of Hazel Green, and a niece of Messrs. Floyd and John Day, of this city. She is but sixteen years of age, and because of her youth, her parents objected to the marriage.

Mr. Kash and Miss McLin eloped Wednesday night, accompanied by Mr. E. C. Kash, to Hedges. There they hired a horse and buggy at an enormous price, and drove into North Middletown where they were joined by Dr. J. A. Gilkey, cousin of the bride, who went with the young couple to Paris, where they took the train for Cincinnati.

Mr. Kash is a young banker of Hazel Green. He is interested also in educational work and is a popular and highly esteemed young gentleman. He is a brother of Prosecuting Attorney Kelly Kash.

The bride is a lovely and charming young lady, and has many friends, who extend best wishes.

VERNON KINDRED BADLY BURNED

Gas Jet Explodes in Engine Room of Auditorium, And Fire Department is Called Out.

Vernon Kindred, aged 18, was hurled for ten or fifteen feet and received severe burns and bruises when a gas jet exploded in the engine room at the Auditorium at 2:30 Friday afternoon. Young Kindred had stopped in front of the door and was buckling on his skate when the explosion occurred.

The boy was cut on the left hand, and back of the neck and bruised about the neck; both ears were also cut and his hair was singed.

The fire department was called out and the flames extinguished. Considerable damage was done in the engine room.

MR. CHARLTON LOWE
IS CRITICALLY ILL

Aged Veteran Stricken With Paralysis While Seated at Table, And is Not Expected to Recover.

Mr. Charlton Lowe, one of Winchester's oldest and most highly esteemed citizens was stricken with paralysis while seated at the supper table at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Charles Hagan, Thursday evening, and is in a critical condition.

Mr. Lowe is an old Confederate Veteran, and is 83 years of age. He came to this city a number of years ago from North Middletown, where he owns a valuable farm.

His wife and three daughters, Mrs. Charles Hagan, and Misses Babe and Chaslye Lowe are living.

Mr. Lowe was on the streets Thursday and seemed in his usual good spirits. His left side and his power of speech are affected and he is only partly conscious. His many friends are grieved at his condition.

Drs. B. F. Johnson and H. D. Stubbins are in attendance at his bedside.

SIG SPEYER BROUGHT BACK FROM THE LAST

He Refuses to Talk About His Case
Except to Say He Expects to Adjust Matters.

Lexington, Ky., Feb. 23.—Assistant Chief of Police W. Malcolm Brown arrived in Lexington from New York City Thursday night, having as a prisoner Sigmund H. Speyer, who was arrested last week in Hoboken, New Jersey, just as he was about to sail for Europe, charged with having embezzled a large sum from the firm of Speyer & Sons, local hide and commission merchants.

Within an hour after his arrival Speyer was released on a bond in the sum of $500, with Moses Kaufman, the well-known local merchant, as his surety, for his appearance in Police Court Friday afternoon for examining trial.

Refuses to Discuss Case.
Speyer refused to discuss his case with the newspaper men, further than to say he believed matters could be agreeably adjusted between himself and the firm of Speyer & Sons, and that he did not apprehend any serious difficulty.

He would neither deny nor confirm the statement that he had embezzled money from the firm of Speyer & Sons, with whom he was confidentially employed for about eight years, and could not be drawn out as to whether he would make restitution of the amount he is said to have embezzled, which, it has been rumored, is between $25,000 and $40,000. He did not seem greatly perturbed over the difficulty in which he is involved.

Jacob Speyer is Informed

Assistant Chief Brown and Speyer went directly from the Union Station, where they arrived at 6:35 o'clock on the Chesapeake & Ohio train, which was an hour and fifty minutes late, to police headquarters, and Assistant Chief Brown made known his arrival over the telephone of Jacob Speyer, member of the firm of Speyer & Sons, who swore out a warrant for Sigmund Speyer's arrest.

A short time after their arrival at police headquarters, Jacob Speyer arrived there and, without taking up a discussion with Sigmund Speyer in regard to the cause of his arrest, a bail bond was soon written by Magistrate Charles Dodd, the amount of which was fixed at $500, and Mr. Kaufman signed it.

Sig Goes to Hotel

Sig Speyer then went to a hotel and registered for the night, promising to appear before Judge Butler T. Southgate in Police Court at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon for his examining trial.

Assistant Chief Brown said he had experienced no difficulty in having the requisition papers for Speyer's return honored by Woodrow Wilson, of New Jersey, and said Speyer was willing to return to Lexington.

Miss Flora Nelson, leading lady with the Wheeler Sisters Big Stock Company, at the Opera House all next week, commencing Monday, February 26.

DEATHS AND FUNERALS

Mrs. Susan McMillan
Mrs. Susan McMillan, aged eighty-five years, passed away at the home of her son, Jake Morgerson, Wednesday, after a short illness, due to the infirmities of old age. She was a native of Madison, but had been a resident of Clark for the past forty years. She was twice married. Mr. Morgerson resides on the farm of Mr. A. Howard Hampton, on the Muddy creek road. The remains were interred in the Shearer graveyard in that section Thursday.

William Kindred
William Kindred, aged 65 years, passed away at his home near Ford last Monday evening. Deceased had been a resident of this county for the past six years, moving here from Estill and purchasing a small farm on the Ford and Hampton turnpike. Several children survive him besides his wife. Mr. Kindred had been afflicted for about four years with paralysis and for the past few months had been in a hopeless condition. The remains were taken to his old home in Estill county Tuesday for interment.

"A PAIR OF COUNTRY KIDS."

The pair of Kids at the Winchester Opera House on Friday night, from all reports are a lively pair and are ably managed and assisted by a competent company of ladies and gentlemen, as are all such high-class companies presenting rural comedies. These companies should not be confounded with the coarse and vulgar farmer plays that have been touring the country for years and whose principal merit is a noisy brass band. The latter day rural play is a pleasing homespun affair presented by a cast of intelligent people and framed in a natural rural atmosphere such as we have all at some time in our lives been familiar with. "A Pair of Country Kids" is of the latter class and will please the old and young and is a real novelty in many respects, and we can assure the patrons of the Winchester Opera House that they will surely get their money's worth in watching the antics of the kids for two hours and a half.
